

The Nature of Yeshua in the Pauline Epistles and Hebrews

defilement of sin and assured them of permanent maintenance in a right relationship with God.”²²⁴

Yeshua’s single sacrifice has brought a permanent perfection to His own, which the sacrifices offered over and over again by the Levitical priesthood could not bring. This perfection is a permanent action, seen in the perfect verb teteleiōken (τετελείωκεν), whereas being made holy or sanctified is a continual action performed upon Believers by the Spirit, seen in the present passive participle hagiazomenous (ἁγιαζομένουσ). The ESV captures the verb tenses a little better: “by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified” (Hebrews 10:14). Ellingworth also might clarify for you what the “perfection” brought actually concerns: “τελείω [teleiōō] implies the fulfillment of the...goal, namely an access to God which was formerly open only to the high priest.”²²⁵ Our author, somewhat repeating what he has stated earlier (Hebrews 8:8-12), will then once again assert how Yeshua’s work has inaugurated the New Covenant (Hebrews 10:15-17).

Hebrews 10:19

“Confidence to Enter the Holy Place by the Blood of Yeshua”

“Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Yeshua.”

Those who have been redeemed and spiritually regenerated through the saving work of Yeshua, can “have boldness to enter into the Holies by the blood of Yeshua” (Hebrews 10:19, TLV), even though such parrēsia (παρρησία) or “confidence” does require God’s people to approach Him with respect and not dishonor.²²⁶ People in general being able to approach the Lord, in such a manner, is quite different from the condition present in the pre-resurrection era—especially as the high priest would not linger in the Holy of Holies on the Day of Atonement. The Mishnah specifically attests, “He did not prolong his prayer, so as not to frighten the Israelites” (m.Yoma 5:1).²²⁷ The high priest would simply enter into the Holy of Holies, perform his necessary duties, and then get out lest the people think that he offended God and God had struck him dead somehow. The high priest would enter the Holy of Holies with a great deal of fear, but Believers should have a confidence, in approaching their Heavenly Father.

“Yeshua, the Author and Perfector of Faith”

“Therefore, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also lay aside every encumbrance and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Yeshua, the author and perfector of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.”

Hebrews ch. 12 shifts the scene, from speaking of figures from Israel’s past, seen previously in ch. 11, to our author now discussing his audience’s present experience.²²⁸ The author of
