

SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Author & Audience:

the Apostle Paul, writing to Jewish and non-Jewish Believers in Corinth

Date:

Winter 56 or 57 C.E.

Purpose:

What is canonically considered to be 2 Corinthians is at least the third piece of correspondence written by Paul to this assembly. Some have proposed that 2 Corinthians is actually several letters edited together, but it is possible to read this letter as a single piece of correspondence. A number of the problems addressed previously in 1 Corinthians appear to be resolved, although 2 Corinthians includes a vigorous defense of Paul's Apostleship. One does get to learn a great deal about Paul the individual from 2 Corinthians, and his unique ethos of ministry service.

Salutation

¹ Paul, an apostle of Messiah Yeshua by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the holy ones who are in the whole of Achaia:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Paul's Thanksgiving after Affliction

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort;

⁴ who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

⁵ For just as the sufferings of Messiah abound to us, so also our comfort is abundant through Messiah.

⁶ But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which works in you the perseverance of the same sufferings which we also suffer;

⁷ and our hope for you is firm, knowing that as you are sharers of our sufferings, so also are you sharers of our comfort.

⁸ For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers and sisters, concerning our affliction which came to us in Asia, that we were burdened down exceedingly, beyond our power, so that we despaired even of life;

⁹ indeed, we had had the sentence of death within ourselves so that we would not rely in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead;

¹⁰ who delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver us; on Him we have set our hope, and He will yet deliver us,

¹¹ you also helping together on our behalf by your prayer, so that thanks may be given by many for the favor bestowed upon us through the prayer of many.

The Postponement of Paul's Visit

¹² For our boasting is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world—and more abundantly toward you.

¹³ For we write nothing else to you than what you read and acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge until the end;

¹⁴ just as you also partially did acknowledge us, that we are your boasting as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Yeshua.

¹⁵ And in this confidence I wanted to come to you first, that you might have a second benefit;

¹⁶ and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be sent on my journey to Judea.

¹⁷ So, was I vacillating when I wanted to do this, was I? Or the things that I intend, do I intend according to the flesh, that with me there should be yes, yes and no, no at the same time?

¹⁸ But as God is faithful, our word to you is not yes and no.

¹⁹ For the Son of God, Yeshua the Messiah, who was proclaimed among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not yes and no, but is yes in Him.

²⁰ For as many promises there are of God, in Him they are yes; wherefore also through Him is the Amen, to the glory of God through us.

²¹ Now He who establishes us with you in Messiah and anointed us is God,

²² who also sealed us, and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

²³ But I call God for a witness to my soul, that to spare you I did not come again to Corinth.

²⁴ Not that we lord it over your faith, but are workers with you for your joy; for in faith you stand firm.

¹ But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again to you in sorrow.

² For if I cause you sorrow, who then makes me glad but the one being made sorrowful by me?

³ And I wrote this very thing, so that when I came, I would not have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

⁴ For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not that you would be made sorrowful, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly for you.

Forgiveness for the Offender

⁵ But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not to me, but in part—in order not to press too heavily—to you all.

⁶ Sufficient for such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the majority,

⁷ so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest somehow such a one be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

⁸ Wherefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

⁹ For to this end also I wrote, so that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things.

¹⁰ But whom you forgive anything, I forgive also; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it for your sakes in the presence of Messiah,

¹¹ so that no advantage be taken of us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

Paul's Anxiety and Relief

¹² Now when I came to Troas for the good news of Messiah and when a door was opened for me in the Lord,

¹³ I had no rest for my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went on to Macedonia.

¹⁴ But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Messiah, and manifests through us the aroma of the knowledge of Him in every place.

¹⁵ For we are a fragrance of Messiah to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;

¹⁶ to the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. And who is sufficient for these things?

¹⁷ For we are not as the many, peddling the word of God, but as from sincerity, but as from God, in the sight of God we speak in Messiah.

Ministers of the New Covenant

¹ Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some do, letters of commendation to you or from you?

² You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all people;

³ being manifested that you are a letter of Messiah, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone, but on tablets that are hearts of flesh.

⁴ And such confidence we have through Messiah toward God.

⁵ Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God,

⁶ who also made us sufficient as ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

⁷ But if the ministry of death, in letters written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look intently upon the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, which is fading away,

⁸ how will the ministry of the Spirit fail to be even more with glory?

⁹ For if the ministry of condemnation has glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness exceed it in glory.

¹⁰ For indeed what had glory, in this case has no glory on account of the glory that surpasses it.

¹¹ For if that which is fading away is with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

¹² Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness in our speech,

¹³ and are not as Moses, who used to put a veil over his face, so that the children of Israel might not look intently at the goal of that which is fading away.

¹⁴ But their minds were hardened; for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant^a the same veil remains unlifted, because it is removed in Messiah.

^a Grk. tēs palaios diathēkēs; rendered by the TLV as “the ancient covenant,” which is semantically possible due to the adjective palaios meaning “of old date, ancient” (LS, 586).

¹⁵ But to this day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart;

¹⁶ but whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

¹⁸ But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

Treasure in Earthen Vessels

¹ Therefore, having this ministry, as we received mercy, we do not lose heart,

² but we have renounced the hidden shameful things, not walking in craftiness or distorting the word of God, but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every person’s conscience in the sight of God.

³ And even if our good news is veiled, it is veiled in those who are perishing.

⁵ For we do not proclaim ourselves but Messiah Yeshua as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Yeshua’s sake.

⁶ For God, who said, “Light shall shine out of darkness,” is the One who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Messiah.

⁷ But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the surpassing greatness of the power may be of God and not from ourselves;

⁸ we are hard pressed in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing;

⁹ persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed;

Controversy ensues per the perspective issue of whether “the old covenant” is the Torah proper, or is intended “the ministry of death” (3:7) or “the ministry of condemnation” (3:9), to be regarded as the condemning attributes of the Torah upon Law-breakers, clearly to be contrasted to the New Covenant as “the ministry of the Spirit” (3:8) or “the ministry of righteousness” (3:9). The New Covenant, contrary to the Old Covenant and its tenor to condemn sinners, instead promises permanent forgiveness, atonement, and a supernatural ability to see God’s people keep His commandments (Jeremiah 31:31-34; Ezekiel 36:25-27).

¹⁰ always carrying about in the body the dying of Yeshua, that the life of Yeshua also may be manifested in our body.

¹¹ For we who live are always being delivered over to death for Yeshua's sake, that the life of Yeshua also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

¹² So death works in us, but life in you.

¹³ But having the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, "I BELIEVED, THEREFORE I SPOKE" [Psalm 116:10], we also believe, and therefore we speak;

¹⁴ knowing that He who raised the Lord Yeshua will raise us also with Yeshua and will present us with you.

¹⁵ For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being increased through the many people, may cause the giving of thanks to abound to the glory of God.

Living by Faith

¹⁶ Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer self is decaying, yet our inner self is renewed day by day.

¹⁷ For our momentary, light affliction, works for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison,

¹ For we know that if the Earthly house of our tent is torn down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens.

² For indeed in this we groan, longing to be further clothed^a with our dwelling from Heaven;

³ inasmuch as we, having put it on, will not be found naked.

⁴ For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened, not that we want to be unclothed but that we want to be further clothed^b, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

⁵ Now He who prepared us for this very thing is God, who gave to us the Spirit as a pledge.

⁶ Therefore, being always of good courage, and knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord—

⁷ for we walk by faith, not by sight—

⁸ we are of good courage, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

⁹ Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be pleasing to Him.

¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Messiah, that each one may be recompensed for the things done through the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

The Ministry of Reconciliation

¹¹ Therefore knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade people, but we are made manifest to God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in your consciences.

¹² We are not again commending ourselves to you, but are giving you an occasion for boasting about us, that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance, and not in heart.

¹³ For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you.

¹⁴ For the love of Messiah controls us, having concluded this, that one died for all, therefore all died;

¹⁵ and He died for all, that they who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him who for their sakes died and rose again.

¹⁶ Therefore from now on we recognize no one according to the flesh; even though we have known Messiah according to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer.

¹⁷ Therefore if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, the new have come.

¹⁸ Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Messiah, and gave us the ministry of reconciliation,

¹⁹ namely, that God was in Messiah reconciling the world to Himself, not

^a Grk. verb ependuomai; "to put a garment on over an existing garment, put on (in addition)" (BDAG, 361), envisioning the immortal body being placed on top of a person's existing, mortal body, with the preference being never having to go through death and a disembodied state; paraphrased by the NEB with, "we yearn to have our heavenly habitation put on over this one."

^b Grk. verb ependuomai; paraphrased by the NEB with, "our desire is to have the new body put on over it."

counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

²⁰ Therefore, we are ambassadors for Messiah, as though God were entreating through us; we beseech you on behalf of Messiah, be reconciled to God.

²¹ He made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

¹ And working together with Him, we also entreat you not to receive the grace of God in vain—

² for He says, “AT AN ACCEPTABLE TIME I LISTENED TO YOU, AND ON A DAY OF SALVATION I HELPED YOU”; Behold, now is “THE ACCEPTABLE TIME,” behold, now is “THE DAY OF SALVATION” [Isaiah 49:8]—

³ giving no cause for offense in anything, so that the ministry may not be blamed.

⁴ but in everything commending ourselves as ministers of God, in much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,

⁵ in beatings, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in hunger,

⁶ in purity, in knowledge, in longsuffering, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love,

⁷ in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left,

⁸ by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; regarded as deceivers and yet true;

⁹ as unknown, and yet well-known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed;

¹⁰ as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

¹¹ Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians, our heart is opened wide.

¹² You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained by your own affections.

¹³ Now in a like exchange—I speak as to children—open wide to us also.

The Temple of the Living God

¹⁴ Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers; for what partnership have righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness?

¹⁵ Or what accord has Messiah with Belial, or what part has a believer with an unbeliever?

¹⁶ Or what agreement has a temple of God with idols? For we are a temple of the living God; just as God said, “I WILL DWELL IN THEM AND WALK AMONG THEM; AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE” [Leviticus 26:12; Jeremiah 32:38; Ezekiel 37:27].

¹⁷ “Therefore COME OUT FROM AMONG THEM AND BE SEPARATE,” says the Lord, “AND TOUCH NO UNCLEAN THING; and I will welcome you [Isaiah 52:11; Ezekiel 20:34, 41].

¹⁸ “And will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to Me,” says the Lord Almighty.

Paul’s Joy at the Assembly’s Repentance

² Open your hearts to us; we wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we took advantage of no one.

³ I do not speak to condemn you; for I have said before that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together.

⁵ For even when we came into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were afflicted on every side: fightings without, fears within.

⁶ But God, who comforts the lowly, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

⁷ and not only by his coming, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, as he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced even more.

⁸ For though I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it—for I see that that letter caused you sorrow, though only for a while—

⁹ I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to God, so that you might not suffer loss in anything through us.

¹⁰ For the sorrow that is according to God works repentance without regret, leading to salvation; but the sorrow of the world works death.

¹¹ For behold what earnestness this very thing, this being sorrowful according to God, has worked in you: what defense of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what avenging of wrong! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter.

¹² So although I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the offender nor for the sake of the one offended, but that your earnestness for us might be made manifest to you in the sight of God.

¹³ Therefore we have been comforted. And besides our own comfort we rejoiced even more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all.

¹⁴ For if in anything I have boasted to him about you, I was not put to shame; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting before Titus has proved true.

¹⁵ And his affection abounds all the more toward you, as he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

¹⁶ I rejoice that in everything I have confidence in you.

Generous Giving

¹ Now, brothers and sisters, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia;

² that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality.

³ For according to their ability, I testify, and beyond their ability, they gave of their own accord,

⁴ begging us with much urging for the favor and the fellowship in the ministering to the holy ones,

⁵ and this, not as we had expected, but they first gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God.

⁶ So we urged Titus that as he had previously made a beginning, so he would also complete in you this grace also.

⁷ But just as you abound in everything, in faith and utterance and knowledge and in all earnestness and in your love for us, see that you abound in this grace also.

⁸ I am not speaking this as a command, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity of your love also.

⁹ For you know the grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich.

¹⁰ And in this matter I give my opinion, for this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin a year ago not only to do this, but also to desire to do it.

¹¹ But now finish doing it also; that just as there was the readiness to desire it, so there may be also the completion of it out of what you have.

¹² For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have.

¹³ For this is not for the ease of others and for your affliction, but by way of equality—

¹⁴ at this present time your abundance being a supply for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want, that there may be equality;

¹⁵ as it is written, “He who gathered MUCH HAD NOTHING LEFT OVER, AND HE WHO gathered LITTLE HAD NO LACK [Exodus 16:18].”

¹⁶ But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.

¹⁷ For he indeed accepted our appeal, but being himself very earnest, he has gone to you of his own accord.

¹⁸ And we have sent along with him the brother whose fame in the things of the good news has spread through all the assemblies;

¹⁹ and not only this, but he has also been appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in the matter of this grace, which is being ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to show our readiness,

²⁰ avoiding this, that anyone should blame us in the matter of this abundance being ministered by us;

²¹ for we have regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of people.

²² And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have tested many times and found diligent in many things, but now even more diligent, because of his great confidence in you.

²³ As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you; as for our brothers, they are messengers^a of the assemblies, a glory to Messiah.

²⁴ Therefore, before the assemblies, show them the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

The Offering for the Believers

¹ For indeed concerning the ministry to the holy ones, it is superfluous for me to write to you;

² for I know your readiness, of which I boast about you to the Macedonians, that Achaia has been prepared since last year, and your zeal has stirred up very many of them.

³ But I have sent the brothers, that our boasting about you may not be made empty in this case, that, as I was saying, you may be prepared;

⁴ lest if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to speak of you) should be put to shame by this confidence.

⁵ So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers that they would go on to you, and arrange in advance your previously promised blessing, that the same might be ready as a blessing, and not as an exaction.

⁶ Now this I say: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly; and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

⁷ Let each one do just as he has purposed in his heart; not grudgingly or out of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver.

⁸ And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may abound to every good work;

⁹ as it is written, "HE SCATTERED ABROAD, HE GAVE TO THE POOR, HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS ABIDES FOREVER [Psalm 112:9, LXX]."

¹⁰ Now He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness;

¹¹ you, being enriched in everything for all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God.

¹² For the ministry of this service not only fully supplies the needs of the holy ones, but is also overflowing through many thanksgivings to God.

¹³ Because of the proof given by this ministry they will be glorifying God for your submission to your confession to the good news of Messiah, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all,

¹⁴ while they also, by supplication on your behalf, yearn for you because of the surpassing grace of God in you.

¹⁵ Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

Paul Defends His Ministry

¹ Now I, Paul, myself entreat you by the meekness and gentleness of Messiah—I who am humble in your presence with you, but bold toward you when away.

² I ask that I may not be bold with the confidence with which I consider to be courageous against some, who regard us as if we walked according to the flesh.

³ For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh,

⁴ for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but powerful before God for the demolition of strongholds.

⁵ We are demolishing arguments and every lofty thing that is raised up against the knowledge of God, and taking every thought captive to the obedience of Messiah,

⁶ and we are ready to punish all disobedience, when your obedience is complete.

⁷ You look at the things before your face. If anyone is confident in himself that he is

^a Grk. sing. apostolos; "apostles" (HNV).

Messiah's, let him consider this again within himself, that just as he is Messiah's, so also are we.

⁸ For even if I boast somewhat more abundantly about our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for demolishing you, I will not be put to shame,

⁹ so that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.

¹⁰ For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech of no account."

¹¹ Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when away, such are we also in work when present.

¹² For we do not dare to class or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves; but when they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.

¹³ But we will not boast beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the sphere which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even to you.

¹⁴ For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach to you, for we came even as far as to you in the good news of Messiah;

¹⁵ not boasting beyond our measure, that is, in the labor of others, but having hope that, as your faith grows, we will be, within our sphere, enlarged even more by you,

¹⁶ so as to proclaim the good news even to the regions beyond you, and not to boast in what has been done in the sphere of another.

¹⁷ But HE WHO BOASTS, LET HIM BOAST IN THE LORD [Jeremiah 9:24].

¹⁸ For not he who commends himself is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Paul and the False Apostles

¹ I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness; but indeed you do bear with me.

² For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I betrothed you to one husband, so that I might present you as a pure virgin to Messiah.

³ But I am afraid, lest as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from the simplicity and the purity to the Messiah.

⁴ For if one comes and proclaims another Yeshua whom we did not proclaim, or you receive a different spirit which you did not receive, or a different good news which you did not accept, you put up with this well enough.

⁵ For I consider myself to being not in the least inferior, to the super-apostles.

⁶ But even if I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not in knowledge; in fact, in every way we have made this plain to you in all things.

⁷ Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I proclaimed to you the good news of God without charge?

⁸ I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you;

⁹ and when I was present with you and was in need, I was not a burden to anyone; for the brothers and sisters, when they came from Macedonia, supplied my need, and in everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and I will keep myself doing so.

¹⁰ As the truth of Messiah is in me, this boasting of mine will not be stopped in the regions of Achaia.

¹¹ Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do.

¹² But what I do, that I will continue to do, that I may cut off opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in which they boast.

¹³ For such ones are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Messiah.

¹⁴ And no wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

¹⁵ So it is no great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness; whose end will be according to their works.

Paul's Sufferings as an Apostle

¹⁶ Again I say, let no one think me foolish; but if you do, receive me even as foolish, that I also may boast a little.

¹⁷ That which I am speaking, I am not speaking as the Lord would, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting.

¹⁸ Since many glory according to the flesh, I will boast also.

¹⁹ For you gladly bear with the foolish, being wise yourselves.

²⁰ For you bear with anyone if he enslaves, if he devours you, if he takes advantage of you, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you in the face.

²¹ To my shame I must say that we have been weak. But in whatever anyone is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also.

²² Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.

²³ Are they ministers of Messiah? (I speak as if out of my mind) I more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in beatings above measure, in deaths often.

²⁴ Five times I received from the Jews forty lashes minus one.

²⁵ Three times I was beaten with rods, once was I stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

²⁶ on frequent journeys often, in dangers from rivers, dangers from robbers, dangers from my own race, dangers from the nations, dangers in the city, dangers in the wilderness, dangers on the sea, dangers among false brothers and sisters;

²⁷ labor and hardship, in many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and nakedness.

²⁸ Apart from such external things, there is the daily pressure upon me of concern for all the assemblies.

²⁹ Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall, and I do not inwardly burn?

³⁰ If I have to boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness.

³¹ The God and Father of the Lord Yeshua, He who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying.

³² In Damascus, the ethnarch of Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes in order to seize me, ³³ and through a window, in a basket, I was let down, through the wall, and I escaped his hands.

Visions and Revelations

¹ It is necessary to boast, though it is not profitable; but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

² I know a person in Messiah who fourteen years ago—whether in the body, I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up to the third Heaven.

³ And I know such a person—whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, God knows—

⁴ that he was caught up into Paradise, and heard inexpressible words, which no mortal is permitted to speak.

⁵ On behalf of such a one I will boast; but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in regard to my weaknesses.

⁶ For if I wish to boast I will not be foolish, for I will be speaking the truth; but I refrain from it, so that no one may think more of me than he sees in me or hears from me.

⁷ And because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me—to keep me from exalting myself!

⁸ Concerning this I entreated the Lord three times that it might depart from me.

⁹ And He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Messiah may rest upon me.

¹⁰ Therefore I am well content in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in difficulties, for Messiah's sake; for when I am weak, then am I strong.

Paul's Concern for the Corinthian Assembly

¹¹ I have become foolish; you compelled me; for I ought to have been commended by you, for I was not at all inferior to the super-apostles, even though I am nothing.

¹² The signs of a true apostle were performed among you in all patience, with signs and wonders and mighty works.

¹³ For what is there in which you were treated as inferior to the rest of the assemblies, except that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!

¹⁴ Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I do not seek what is yours, but you; for the children ought not to save up for their parents, but the parents for their children.

¹⁵ And I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you the more, am I to be loved the less?

¹⁶ But be that as it may, I did not burden you myself. But, being crafty, I caught you with guile?

¹⁷ Did I take advantage of you through any of those whom I have sent to you?

¹⁸ I urged Titus to go, and sent the brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit and in the same steps?

¹⁹ All this time have you been thinking that we are defending ourselves to you. In the sight of God we have been speaking in Messiah; and all things, for your upbuilding, beloved.

²⁰ For I fear that perhaps when I come I may find you not what I wish and may be found by you to not be what you wish; that perhaps there will be strife, jealousy, anger, disputes, slanders, gossip, arrogance, disturbances;

²¹ let that not be, so when I come again my God may humiliate me before you, and I may mourn for many of those who have sinned before and not repented of the impurity and fornication and licentiousness which they committed.

Final Warnings and Greetings

¹ This is the third time I am coming to you. BY THE TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES WILL EVERY MATTER BE ESTABLISHED [Deuteronomy 19:15].

² I have previously said when present the second time, and though absent I do say in advance, to those who sinned before and to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare anyone,

³ since you are seeking proof of the Messiah who speaks in me, and who is not weak toward you, but is mighty in you.

⁴ For He was executed on a wooden scaffold because of weakness, yet He lives because of the power of God. For we also are weak in Him, yet we will live with Him through the power of God directed toward you.

⁵ Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize as to your own selves, that Yeshua the Messiah is in you—unless indeed you fail the test?

⁶ But I hope that you will realize that we do not fail the test.

⁷ Now we pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do what is good, even though we may seem unapproved.

⁸ For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

⁹ For we rejoice, when we are weak, but you are strong; this we also pray for—your completion.

¹⁰ For this reason I am writing these things while absent, so that when present I may not deal harshly, in accordance with the authority which the Lord gave me, for building up and not for tearing down.

¹¹ Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice, be made complete, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss.

¹³ All the holy ones greet you.

¹⁴ The grace of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.
